The Moon and Spoon

Slough

The author George Orwell described his ideal pub in a newspaper article and called it 'Moon Under Water'. It is why 'moon' is used in the name of several Wetherspoon pubs. This pub stands on the site of the Black Boy Inn. First recorded in 1679, it was demolished in 1910 and replaced by the Fulbrook Motor Works. Later known as Fulbrook House, it was home to Slough's first supermarket and then the Halifax Building Society.

Food hygiene rating

We have been awarded the maximum food hygiene rating of 5 in our pub.

100% UK and Irish beef

Sourced from farms in the UK and Ireland. Traceable from farm to fork.

Sustainable fish

The cod and haddock we serve come from fisheries which have been independently certified to the MSC's standards for well-managed and sustainable fisheries.

Free-range eggs

100% of the eggs we use are free range. All shell eggs are certified with the British Lion quality mark and are RSPCA assured, ensuring the highest standards of animal welfare.
